EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Alan Kopecki on 29 March 2004 at 1:35 P.M.

Please amend the case as follows:

In claim 12, lines 6 – 7, remove “wherein the side surfaces diverge in a direction away from the slot;”

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 1 – 9 and 11 – 14 are allowed.
3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Claims 1 and 12 have similar elements including a cutting tool comprising a seat and a slot extending from the seat. The prior art discloses clamping arrangements and tool holders with wings and deflecting elements similar to the instant invention. However, the prior art did not disclose nor render obvious a threaded screw in a holder spanning a wing-like member and a slot to be tightened via an opposite side of the slot in order to produce a deflection of said wing wherein the screw is not perpendicular to the abutting surface. Applicant's amendment to include side surfaces of the seat that diverge away from the slot significantly distinguished the instant invention over the relevant references. Claim 12 included this limitation initially and, after reconsideration, the original rejection to claim 12 have been withdrawn.

Claim 14 sets forth a similar tool holder and includes more limitations drawn to the slot. The Examiner used Vana (U.S. Pat. No. 3,066,385) in the first Action which required viewing the holder of Vana perpendicular to its apparent natural orientation. Applicant's amendment to limit the slot to being narrower than largest width of the seat sufficiently overcame this rejection. No reasonable combination could be found since a requirement of the wing (formed by the slot) is that it be deformable. The seat for the insert also must include a support surface and two upstanding side surfaces. Modifying a reference such as Pano (or any of the other similar references) would require adding an additional surface (to the insert seat) that would appear destroy the workability of the flexible wing.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
